

CIA HISTORICAL REVIEW PROGRAM
RELEASE AS SANITIZED

Estimate: Your file

~~SECRET~~

file

I. APPRECIATION

A. Guatemala

Bissell

Present strength of Communists.

On whose side is Time?

B. Neighbors

Bissell

Current strengths and attitudes of Honduras, Nicaragua and

Salvador, and effects upon them of continued march of Communism in Guatemala.

C. Assets

Barnes

What have we now

Outside the country

Inside the Country

and what are our capabilities in the fields of intelligence and

CE, psychological warfare and political action, EM, and PM and defection.

How well can we hold together what we now have, and develop additional assets.

CIA HISTORICAL REVIEW PROGRAM
RELEASE AS SANITIZED
2003

~~SECRET~~

D. Security

Penetrations

Enemy intentions

II. POSSIBLE COURSES OF ACTION

Lincoln
A. - Continue plan in present form, stressing PM and working for earliest possible action.

Wesner
Bissell
[King]
B. Continue and accelerate intelligence, propaganda, political and economic action and defection, postponing PM action until October or later.

There could be a vigorous and coordinated program of overt and covert action with emphasis, in the latter field, placed upon:

penetration

golden bullets

"small" harrassments including sabotage and strong arm stuff.

intensified propaganda to keep the refugees, if no one else, happy and busy.

sufficient movement of arms to keep PM assets in being and enemy on edge.

Laddy
C. Slack off on covert action of more vigorous (and attributable or compromised) nature, abandon Rufus et al, rely on overt action - speeches, OAS, Rio pact, foreign ministers etc. - to do the job.

D. Recognize the Guatemalans as agrarian reformers and clutch them publicly to our bosom, ^{aid} smother them with care, kill them with kindness.

III. RECOMMENDATION

~~SECRET~~

file

I. APPRECIATION

A. Guatemala: _____

Present strength of Communists.

On whose side is time?

Bissell

B. Neighbors

Current strengths and attitudes of Honduras, Nicaragua and Salvador, and effects upon them of continued march of Communism in Guatemala.

C. Assets

What have we now

Outside the country

Inside the Country

*[]
Brouss*

and what are our capabilities in the fields of intelligence and CE, psychological warfare and political action, EN, and PM and defection.

How well can we hold together what we now have, and develop additional assets.

~~SECRET~~

D. Security

Penetrations

Enemy intentions

II. POSSIBLE COURSES OF ACTION

A. Continue plan ~~in present form~~, stressing PM and ~~working for~~ earliest possible action.

B. Continue and accelerate intelligence, propaganda, political and economic action and defection, postponing PM action until October or later.

There could be a vigorous and coordinated program of overt and covert action with emphasis, in the latter field, placed upon:

penetration

golden bullets

"small" harassments including sabotage and strong arm stuff.

intensified propaganda to keep the refugees, if no one else, happy and busy.

sufficient movement of arms to keep PM assets in being and enemy on edge.

³~~SECRET~~

State Jeddy

C. Slack off on covert action of more vigorous (and attributable or compromised) nature, abandon Rufus et al, rely on overt action - speeches, OAS, Rio pact, foreign ministers etc. - to do the job.

?

D. Recognise the Guatemalans as agrarian reformers and clutch them publicly to our bosom, ^{and} smother them with care, kill them with kindness.

III. RECOMMENDATION